LORD KIMBERLEYS DEFENCE OF THE GOVERNMENT BROTHEL SYSTEM AT HONG KONG. CORRESPONDENCE RELATING TO THE CONTAGIOUS DISEASES ORDINANCES IN HONG KONG. (Presented to both Houses of Parliament in August, 1881.) In the course of the Session of 1830, the Right Hon. J. Stansfeld, M.P., asked for the production of this Correspondence and was answered that it should be presented by command when concluded. It has now been presented and it concludes with the letter of Lord Kimberley to the Governor of Hong Kong, Sir J. Pope Hennessey, of June 26th, 1881, which is reprinted in the following pages. In the year 1877 Sir J. Pope Hennessey appointed a Commission of Inquiry into the working of the Contagious Diseases Ordinances in Hong Kong. Mr. Stansfeld asked for copies of their report and of the evidence taken before them. Sir Michael Hicks Beach consented to place on the table the report, but not the evidence. It so happened, however, that both the evidence and the report had been forwarded to Mr. Stansfeld by the Governor of Hong Kong,* and Mr. Stansfeld placed both in the hands of the National Association for the repeal of the Contagious Diseases Acts, who published a summary of the information therein contained in the columns of their organ, The Shield, which summary was subsequently reprinted for distribution in pamphlet form. Briefly stated, the circumstances which induced the Governor of Hong Kong to appoint the Commission of Inquiry, were as follows: An inquest was held, Oct. 17, 1877, at the Government Civil Hospital,...
